GENERAL INFORMATION

Performance will run approximately 70 minutes. There is no intermission.

Each performance will be followed by a Q&A with members of the cast and creative team.

A note about content: This performance contains:
• A description of the conditions that existed in institutions in the 1970’s
• Historical language used to describe intellectual disability including the ‘R’ word.
• Some loud noises, including clapping, singing and rapping

TICKETING

You may print your ticket and bring it with you to the theatre.

If a ticket has been reserved for you, please visit the ‘will call’ table in the lobby.

If you are part of a group, please check in at ‘will call’.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Accessibility

• If you use a wheelchair or walker, we recommend entering the theatre through the Christ Church Garden, just off 2nd Street. Volunteers in red t-shirts will be standing at the entrance and will direct you.

• There is one elevator to the 4th floor theatre. If you plan to use the elevator to access the theatre, please allow ample time to arrive and be seated.

• Braille and large print programs will be available. Program also available online at afiercelandoflove.org

• All performances will be CART captioned and ASL interpreted.

• Audio Description is available upon advance request. Headsets include earphones, but you are welcome to bring your own.

• A limited number of noise cancelling headphones are available.

• A ‘cool down’ area with a live video feed of the performance will be located just outside the theater space.

• If you need any assistance, look for a volunteer in a red T-shirt; it will be our pleasure to assist you!

Know Before You Go

Note: The stage for A Fierce Kind of Love is not set in a traditional or ‘proscenium’ style. Instead, it is set up like a tennis court, with seats along each side; the performance takes place in the middle.

It will be difficult to exit the theatre during the performance without crossing the performance space. If you feel that staying seated for the 70 minute running time will be challenging for you or your family member, please let us know. We will help you with seating options that will allow for easier access to the exit. Your safety and comfort are very important to us!
