ACES is a program for young adults who use communication technology (speech generating devices) to develop/refine their skills for effective communication at home, school, work and in the community.

For more information:
Email: ACESinfo@temple.edu
Check our web site for information and updates

Institute on Disabilities at Temple University

www.disabilities.temple.edu/programs/aac/aces