About the Film:

- Content Note: Sexuality, marriage, ableism
- Film is intended for all ages

"Patrice: The Movie is a documentary rom com about the next phase of marriage equality: Disability." Patrice is an independent, dynamic person living with cerebral palsy. With director and long-time friend, Ted Passon, Patrice artistically shows scenes from her life and loving relationship with her partner, Garry. Throughout this playful film, we see the struggles that Patrice went through to get the house, the job, and the life that she now fights to keep."
